

2601 Parkway is
SOLD OUT!
Thank you Philadelphia!

For several decades 2601 Parkway has been a prestigious residence for many of Philadelphia's most discerning citizens, and for good reason. The timeless styling, modern amenities, incomparable location and sense of community all combine to offer a quality of life that is second to none.

New decor, decorative lighting and refined furnishings now give luster to a grand lobby that is noted for its marble floors, tile murals and beautiful millwork. The homes and common areas continue to be updated with contemporary styling and conveniences. But the one feature that has remained unchanged is the breathtaking view of the Ben Franklin Parkway, the Schuylkill River and venerable Boathouse Row, beautiful Fairmount Park and Philadelphia's famous skyline.

2601 Parkway overlooks one of the most coveted views of the city, but nothing has been overlooked to offer you an incomparable lifestyle in a classic setting. It's all the style, all the sophistication, all the amenities and services you'd expect in the hallmark of luxury living.
